Tuesday, October 29th

1:30 p.m.

Johnny Kinsman, Writer, Actor and Presenter

Remember, remember the 5th of November, the Gunpowder treason and plot... If the Pope had simply granted a divorce to King Henry VIII of England, then the Church of England might never have picked a fight with Rome. Were that the case, think of the lives that might have been spared in the hundreds of years of tumult between the Catholics and the Protestants of England, Wales, Scotland, Ireland, and the world. But, alas, the divorce was not granted, and the battle lines were drawn, and the persecution did ensue, and so in 1605 a man named Guy Fawkes set out as part of a swashbuckling crew to administer their version of justice with "The Gunpowder Plot." In this talk we discuss who the real Guy Fawkes was, how he found himself at the center of this infamous event, and how, over the centuries, his likeness and spirit have developed into a troubling harbinger of chaos to those in command, and rallied underdogs in the quest to speak truth to power.

Thank You To Our Summer Volunteers

This summer we had a nice mix of students here during summer breaks. Students served lunch, greeted members, and assisted our bus drivers with grocery trips. This was a nice opportunity to give many of the year-long regular volunteers some time off while increasing intergenerational experiences.

As the students return to school this fall, we welcome back some of our long-standing volunteers. We also anticipate additional volunteer openings for Greeters and Lunch Servers as well as Drivers for our Volunteer Driver Program. If you or someone you know is interested in learning more about these opportunities, please have them contact our Volunteer Coordinator, Sally Miller.

During July and August, a group of service-minded seniors met to write cheerful messages on patriotic cards for veterans at the VA Hospital in West Roxbury. We completed 100 cards that will be delivered in early September. We are grateful to have this opportunity to engage our community to let veterans know they are appreciated.

We would also like to thank Tess Griffin and Terri Horrigan for their "Green Thumb" help keeping our Patio plants watered and Joann Jones for planting them. Many thanks to the FWCOA for subsidizing the purchase of the potted plants, which adds a lovely pop of color to our patio.

SEPTEMBER • Reel Talk • Fridays 1:15 p.m.

SEPT. 6th | Comedy | PG-13 |

Unfrosted (2024)

Michigan, 1963. Kellogg's and Post, sworn cereal rivals, race to create a pastry that will change the face of breakfast forever. A tale of ambition, betrayal, sugar, and menacing milkmen, Unfrosted stars writer/director Jerry Seinfeld. 1h 33m

SEPT. 13th | History/Drama | PG |

The Long Game (2024)

In 1956, JB Peña and his wife moved to the small town of Del Rio, TX, partly for a job as a school superintendent, but mostly to fulfill JB's dream of joining the prestigious, all-white Del Rio Country Club. So when JB is rejected on the basis of his skin color, he is devastated. With little experience and even fewer resources, JB convinces the boys to start their own high school golf team, starting them all on a journey where they learn that it takes more than just golf skills to make history. Based on Mustang Miracle by Humberto G. Garcia. 1h 52m

SEPT. 20th | Drama | R |

Hillbilly Elogy (2020)

Based on the bestselling memoir by J.D. Vance, Hillbilly Elogy is a modern exploration of the American Dream and three generations of an Appalachian family as told by its youngest member, a Yale Law student forced to return to his hometown. 1h 56m

SEPT. 27th | Documentary | Not Rated |

Tea with Dames (2018)

Spend a delightfully bawdy afternoon with four legends of British stage and cinema - Maggie Smith, Judi Dench, Eileen Atkins and Joan Plowright - as they spill the tea on life, love and art. They are longtime friends who invite viewers to join them for a weekend in the country as they catch up with one another, reminisce, and share their candid, delightfully irreverent thoughts on everything from art to aging to love to a life lived in the spotlight. 1h 23m

OCTOBER • Reel Talk • Fridays 1:15 p.m.

OCT. 4th | Drama/Biography/History | PG-13 |

Rustin (2023)

The architect of 1963's momentous March on Washington, Bayard Rustin was one of the greatest activists and organizers the world has ever known. He challenged authority, never apologized for who he was, what he believed, or who he desired. And he did not back down. The Reverend Martin Luther King Jr., Adam Clayton Powell Jr., and Ella Baker, dared to imagine a different world, and inspired a movement in a march toward freedom. 1h 48m

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11TH

TOLLES PARSONS CENTER ANNIVERSARY EVENT

OCT. 18th | History/Drama/Sports/Biography | PG-13 |

Boys in the Boat (2023)

The Boys in the Boat is a sports drama based on the #1 New York Times bestselling non-fiction novel. OCT. 25th | Comedy/Drama | R |

American Fiction (2024)

American Fiction confronts our culture's obsession with reducing people to outrageous stereotypes. Jeffrey Wright stars as Monk, a frustrated novelist who's fed up with the establishment profiting from "Black" entertainment that relies on tired and offensive tropes. To prove his point, Monk uses a pen name to write an outlandish "Black" book of his own, a book that propels him to the heart of hypocrisy and the madness he claims to disdain. 1h 57m

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Community Survey

Do Wellesley residents and stakeholders have equal opportunity?

Does everyone feel a sense of belonging?

Wellesley is a community that highly values diversity, human dignity and respect for all individuals. In order to demonstrate Wellesley's commitment and help establish a more welcoming Town, the Select Board created the Wellesley DE&I Initiative. This survey is one of the components of the Initiative.

Your voice is very important to helping Wellesley create and maintain environments of fair treatment, equal opportunity, belonging and inclusion for all residents and stakeholders.
Thank you for taking this survey
