

Amelanchier arborea* – Downy Serviceberry

Foliage: Medium green in summer turning red/orange in fall

Habit: Multi or single stemmed small tree with rounded crown

Bark: Smooth gray with longitudinal fissures

Flowers: White in mid to late April

Fruit: Edible red berry-like pome

Very few insect or disease issues

Size: 20-25'

Culture: Full sun or part shade

Landscape Value: Beautiful small ornamental trees with early spring bloom

Native to New England

