Wellesley Housing Authority Names Jacqueline Sullivan as Executive Director

January 20, 2022 (Wellesley, MA) – The Wellesley Housing Authority has appointed Jacqueline (Jackie) Sullivan as the new executive director for the organization. A member of the Housing Authority team for more than three years, Jackie has worked in several positions and brings outstanding professional experience to her role. Jackie has a degree in Public Administration from Bridgewater State University, holds a Massachusetts Public Housing Administrator Certification (MPHA), and is a Certified Public Housing Manager (C-PHM).

Jackie is dedicated to carrying out the Wellesley Housing Authority (WHA) mission of providing clean, safe, and well-maintained housing for low to moderate-income seniors, disabled adults, veterans, and families. Both she and the team believe in creating a positive atmosphere for residents to live and raise their families while respecting their rights and privacy. WHA is committed to fair and non-discriminatory policies and practices throughout its housing programs and activities.

In a welcome message, the Housing Authority Board expressed confidence that “Jackie’s forward-thinking goals will also support WHA staff, residents, and the mission of the Housing Authority Board.”

Jackie’s appointment fills the executive director role that has been vacant since October 2021 when former WHA director Sean Barnicle left Wellesley to be the Norwood Housing Authority director. Contact Jackie Sullivan at jsullivan@wellesleyhousing.org
