Directors' Report September 2025

Activities

September 4 – Discover Wellesley Neighbors: Aging in Place with Community

A well-attended session that highlighted resources for older adults wanting to stay independent at home, while building a stronger sense of belonging through community connections and programs.

September 11th - Singalong with Marie

Our first volunteer-run Singalong with Marie was a wonderful success! Patrons joined in, enjoying familiar favorites while singing along to videos. The room was full of smiles, laughter, and the simple joy of making music together. Everyone left looking forward to the next gathering!

September 17 – Fall Cornhole Tournament

A lively cornhole tournament with cider and donuts, combining social engagement with lighthearted fun.

September 18 – Real Pirates Adventure

An engaging historical talk on New England piracy and the discovery of the Whydah shipwreck sparked plenty of questions and a sense of adventure among attendees.

September 19 – Family & Friends CPR Training

In partnership with the Wellesley Fire Department, participants observed life-saving skills in an approachable format, leaving with greater confidence. Class led by Fire Department Lt Delany

September 24 – Tomoko Iwamoto Violin Performance

A rich cultural afternoon blending Iwamoto's versatile violin performance and personality

September 24 - Friends Meet & Greet

Friends of the COA nighttime social event, complete with Shake Shack meals that brought both energy and laughter to a special night. Media coverage from the Swellesley Report

September 25 – Ponzi, Madoff, and Other Scammers Through the Ages

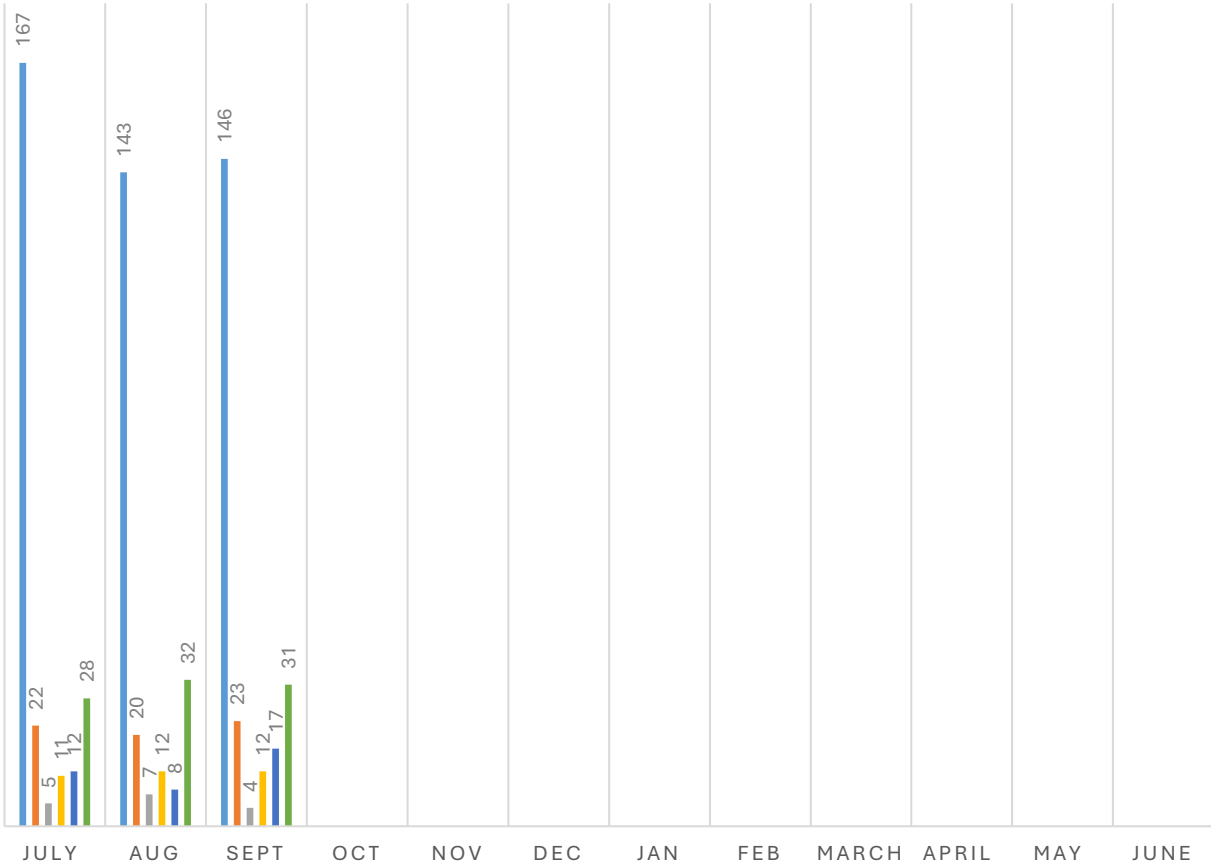

A timely financial literacy session exploring famous frauds, with practical takeaways on how to spot red flags and protect personal assets.

September 30 – From Volcanoes to the Columbia River

A dynamic presentation blending geology, travel, and storytelling, giving attendees a “virtual journey” across the dramatic landscapes of the Pacific Northwest.
