Edward Augustus
Secretary, Executive Office of Housing and Livable Communities
100 Cambridge Street, #300
Boston, MA 02114

Dear Secretary Augustus:

The Town of Wellesley (the “Town”) hereby requests an extension for the submission of additional questions to the Executive Office of Housing and Livable Communities (“HLC”) and Division of Capital Asset Management and Maintenance (“DCAMM”). The Town requests that the deadline be extended to seven (7) days after HLC and DCAMM respond to the Town’s initial questions.

As you are aware, HLC and DCAMM invited the Town to submit two (2) rounds of questions to promote dialogue regarding the proposed disposition of property located at 40 Oakland Street, Wellesley, MA, pursuant to Chapter 150 of the Acts of 2024 (the “AHA”). The Town submitted its initial questions on January 9, 2026, and has not yet received a response.

The current deadline of January 22, 2026, for the Town to submit its second round of questions does not allow the Town to prepare informed and meaningful follow-up inquiries. Responses to the Town’s initial questions are essential for developing a mutual understanding of the proposed project and the requirements of the AHA. Accordingly, the Town requests that HLC and DCAMM extend the deadline for the second round of questions to seven (7) days after responses to the initial questions are provided

The Town appreciates HLC's and DCAMM's continued engagement and willingness to respond to the Town's questions and concerns. We look forward to continuing this constructive and collaborative dialogue.

Sincerely,

Corey B. Testa
Assistant Executive Director
Town of Wellesley
